TURF AND DIAMOND

Some Splendid Racing at the West Side Track.

POMP GOES A MILE IN 2:23

Lydia Allen and Otto Win the Postponed Races—The Salt Lakes Defeat the Danvers.

The last day of the meeting at the West Side park brought out a big attendance yesterday, and among the spectators were many ladies. The races were all interesting and at times the excitement ran high. There was a good deal of money in the pool box and a good deal of betting was done on the side.

The first event was the unfinished race between Lydia Allen, Black Bird and Forest Wilkes, which was postponed on Wednesday on account of darkness. Each horse except Wilkes won two heats. The flyers got a good send off, and Black Bird took the lead, but broke badly, and Lydia went to the front. Then Glenn commenced to let himself out, and at the three-quarter mark he passed under the wire the winner of the heat and race. Time, 2:38 1/2.

Then came the unfinished race between Otto and Mambino Thern, which was also postponed on Wednesday on account of darkness, each horse having two heats to his credit. A good start was made, but the horses were crowded so that they both broke on the first quarter. Otto led to the three-quarter pole, when Thern broke. He quickly settled down again, however, and Otto the stretch with a splendid burst of speed, but was unable to overcome Otto's lead, and the latter won the heat and race. Time, 2:30 1/2.

Next came a running race, quarter-mile heats, best two in three, the starters being Nettie S., Yellowstone and Scotchman. The horses got off well. Nettie S. made a fine finish, coming in a length ahead of Yellowstone. Time, 2:10 1/2.

There was a great deal of scoring in the second heat, Nettie being hard to get off. When the word to go was finally given the mare went like a flash and was never headed, winning easily in 2:23 1/2.

The fourth race was for two-year-old trotters, best two in three, the starters being Alpha M., Belva, Lockwood and Ferguson. Alpha took the first heat, but Belva well up, and Ferguson distanced. Time, 3:12.

Alpha at once took the lead in the second heat, and was three lengths ahead at the half. Then Belva made a spurt and headed the procession in the stretch, when she broke badly and Alpha passed under the wire ahead. Time, 3:10.

Then came the big race between Elder Lucas, Pomp, Don Angus and Jacey. In the first heat Don led to the quarter pole. Then Pomp commenced to gain, and at the half the two were neck and neck. It was nip and tuck between them during the rest of the heat, but Pomp let himself out on the stretch and passed under the wire two lengths ahead of Don in the remarkable fast time of 2:23. Jacey and Cognac were distanced.

Don Angus took the second heat without much effort. Time, 2:29 1/2. Pomp settled down to work in the two succeeding heats, winning each in 2:27.

THE MIXTER INQUEST

Death Resulted From Exposure and Exhaustion.

THE MYSTERY IS SOLVED

A Faithful Dog Guards His Master's Body for a Week—Testimony of the Witnesses.

Coroner Harris held an inquest yesterday on the body of John Mixter, the ranchman which was found lying in Jump Off hollow, Parley's canon, on Wednesday, about a week after the unfortunate man's death. P. J. Reed, Emil Egli and E. G. Ivins were sworn as jurors, and Jacob S. Hansen was called as the first witness. He testified: On October 1, I was to meet with some other parties at Crismon's ranch and hunt some cattle in Parley's canon. When we got there we found that Mixter had gone on ahead of us. After getting into the canon I heard Mixter's dog barking and called to him. Mixter answered and said he would meet me on the ridge between Parley's and Mill Creek. After reaching the ridge I heard someone down in Mill Creek calling to cattle, and concluding it was the deceased, I returned to the ranch with Mr. Richards. Afterwards I learned that other parties were driving the cattle. Nothing was heard of Mixter afterwards, and daily Mr. Pearson became uneasy about him, and yesterday we started out to search for him. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon we found his lifeless body lying beside the trail in Jump Off hollow, in Parley's canon. From the position and circumstances I should say that he became exhausted and laid down and went to sleep. While asleep he probably died. He was about 50 years of age and unmarried.

Benjamin Pearson testified: On October 1 Mixter left Crismon's ranch for Parley's canon to hunt cattle. In the evening Mr. Jensen returned to the ranch and stated that they had heard Mixter up in the hills but did not see him. I left the ranch that day, and when I returned yesterday morning, I found that Mixter had not been there and of course I became uneasy. Several of the worst men in the canon, and Mr. Jensen heard Mixter's dog barking. He went up the trail and found the dog keeping guard over Mixter's dead body. I should say Mixter became exhausted and chilled through and laid down to rest. He probably went to sleep and died.

Willard Richards testified to the same effect as the preceding witnesses. The jury returned a verdict setting forth that the deceased came to his death from the effects of exhaustion and exposure. Mixter, as before stated, was fifty years of age and unmarried. He was a German and came to this country many years ago. The remains will be buried to-day.

Purify Your Blood.
The importance of keeping the blood in a pure condition is universally known, and yet there are very few people who have perfectly pure blood. The taint of scrofula, salt rheum, or other foul humor is hereditary and transmitted for generations, causing untold suffering, and we also accumulate poison and germs of disease from the air we breathe, the food we eat, and the water we drink. There is nothing exclusively proven than the power of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all diseases of the blood. This medicine, when fairly tried, does expel every trace of scrofula or salt rheum, removes the taint which causes catarrh, neutralizes the acidity and cures rheumatism, drives out the germs of malaria, blood poisoning, etc. It also vitalizes and enriches the blood, thus overcoming that tired feeling, and building up the whole system. Thousands testify to the superiority of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier. Full information and statements of cures sent free.
